THE POPE'S PLANS.

Why Archbishop Walsh Was Summoned to Rome.

A PROPOSITION TO ABANDON HOME RULE IN IRELAND.

Preparing for War in Central America—The Fisheries Question—Belgium's Neutrality—Premier Macdonald in a Quandary as to Reciprocity—The List of May in France.

LONDON, March 28.—Prominent Irishmen are anxiously studying the news from Rome that the Pope is again endeavoring to make a handle of the Irish cause to make the diplomatic concession, from great Britain to the Vatican, according to trustworthy reports at Washington in conducting empty negotiations designed to humbug the Canadian Parliament and people. As matters stand he will be obliged either to show his hand to Mr. Blaine before negotiations are opened, or to let the whole matter drop. In either case the results will be unpleasant.

If he abandons the conference, the Pope asks, how is he going to face his Quebec followers whom he promised that the McKinley duties should be repealed through a reciprocity treaty before next harvest. If he submits his plan of reciprocity, which to be acceptable at all, must include a wide range of manufactured goods, how is he to keep the peace among the high and dry protectionists in Ontario? Sir Charles is preparing for the failure of the programme by accusing the Liberals of having turned Mr. Blaine against the Government. Tupper-like he ignores his own anti-Yankee speeches and those of Sir John Macdonald and Sir John Thompson.

If Sir John Macdonald is the loyal man he is supposed to be, he will not be slow to inform Mr. Blaine that he is ready to accept the widest possible exchange of commodities. Should the negotiations prove fruitless, Sir John is tied hand and foot to the Canadian monopolies, and that to protect them he has not hesitated to sacrifice imperial interests as well as the peace of the continent.

The collapse of the present attempt to settle the difference in the two countries would be followed beyond doubt by a state of things hardly distinguishable from war.

SWAMP LANDS.

An Important Measure Before the Arkansas Legislature.

INVOLVING THE TITLES TO LOCATIONS OF THRIVING TOWNS.

Endless Litigation Will Follow the Passage of the Bill—The School Book Question in South Dakota—Railway Control in Texas—Farmers' Alliance Matters—Political Notes.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 28.—One of the most important bills introduced at the present session of the General Assembly was before the House to-day for final action. It passed the Senate by an almost unanimous vote, but when it was read in the House yesterday very few of the members understood its provisions, and the further consideration of it was postponed until Monday. The bill is advocated by ex-Attorney General Dan W. Jones, a member of the House from Pulaski County. It involves 278,000 acres of so-called swamp lands, part of which includes the territory upon which Brinkley, Forrest City, Corning and other towns are located, and if it becomes a law will involve the Iron Mountain and the Little Rock & Memphis roads in costly litigation.

The object of the bill, known as the swamp land bill, is to protect the purchasers of these lands which were patented by the United States Government to these railroads, but which the Supreme Court of this State has very recently decided to be the property of the State under the act of Congress of Sept. 28, 1850, and of March 3, 1857. The greater portion of these lands have been sold by the railroads to private individuals at from $5 to $10 an acre. The bill proposes that all persons who have purchased land of this character from the railroads can obtain a clear title to them on payment to the State of 12½ cents per acre, and fixes the price on the remainder of the land at $1.25 per acre. Those who perfect their titles by the payment of 12½ cents an acre will be entitled to recover the amounts paid to the railroad companies, which is $200 an acre.

Since the recent decision by the Supreme Court numerous purchasers of this land have applied to the State Land Commissioner and he has refused to issue patents upon the lands for such lands in order to perfect their titles, but the Commissioner has refused to accept their money and will continue to refuse to do so until the pending bill becomes a law.

Coal Oil Inspector H. O. Williams of this city and Judge R. W. Martin, one of the street magistrates, came to the city upon the late last night, and Williams drew his revolver and threatened to shoot the judge, whereupon the latter knocked the Coal Oil Inspector down, and the latter was taken to the city jail, where he is now confined.

The Senate passed a bill this morning requiring that all legal notices shall be advertised in newspapers; a bill regulating the distribution of public documents, and defeated a bill authorizing the State Land Commissioner to appoint and remove the county road commissioners and the working of convicts on the public roads.

In the House almost the entire morning was consumed in discussing the general appropriation bill, the objectionable feature being the appropriation of $7,000 to pay the salary of the State Geologist, argument on which was pending when the House took a recess.

CRUSHED THE GRIP.

A Freight Collides With a Cable Train at Chicago.

PASSENGERS HURLED THROUGH THE AIR BY THE SMOKE.

Frightful Panic in a Theater Caused by an Alarm of Fire—The Loss of the Ship Dictator—Drifting for Days Before a Storm at Sea—The Day's Record of Mishaps.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 28.—A Baltimore & Ohio switch engine, pulling a heavily loaded freight train, collided with a State street cable train at the sixteenth street crossing last evening. The grip car and first trailer were demolished, and sixty passengers were hurled through the air. The greatest confusion was in the closed car following the grip. According to the conductor there were forty-five passengers in this car. As the cable train had been ten feet further across the tracks the loss of life would have been appalling.

An Important Fact Demonstrated by the Voyage of the Morrill.

A SYSTEM OF TORPEDO FLOTILLA TO BE DEvised.

The Recent Trip of the Cutter Described—Return of the Hearst Funeral Party—What Members of the Congressional Escort Say—Department Matters—Land Cases—Capital Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—The United States revenue steamer Morrill, which arrived at Charleston yesterday morning, has just returned from a voyage to the North Atlantic. The Morrill is the first of a new class of torpedo flotilla to be devised to protect the coast of the United States. The Morrill is a small vessel, but it is armed with a powerful torpedo. The Morrill is the first of a new class of torpedo flotilla to be devised to protect the coast of the United States.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

President Hall at St. Louis—Organization in Other States.

SLATER, Mo., March 28.—U. S. Hall, State President of the Farmers' and Laborers' Alliance, spoke to a large audience here yesterday, urging free silver and lower tariff. He opposed the sub-treasury scheme, holding that it would bankrupt the farmer and beggar his children.

GROWING IN MINNESOTA. ST. PAUL, Minn., March 28.—The report of Secretary Stromberg of the Minneapolis Farmers' Alliance shows that the organization is making the same phenomenal growth as last year. More than 11,000 members have been enrolled since the election in November last. Mr. Stromberg says that the seven sub-alliances are being organized weekly. The present number of lodges is 1,515, with a total membership of 53,000.

THE WORK IN OREGON. SALEM, Ore., March 28.—D. J. Cole, the national organizer of the Farmers' Alliance, is at Salem, Ore., where he is organizing the county alliances. Since his arrival in Oregon a few weeks ago he has organized eight local alliances. He will visit every county in the State.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.

Salisbury's Efforts to Bring About a Solution.

OTTAWA, Ontario, March 28.—It is asserted in reliable sources that the British government is endeavoring to bring about a solution of the Newfoundland question, Lord Salisbury is using every effort to bring about a confederation of that colony with the Dominion.

THE FRENCH VIEW. LONDON, March 28.—The Journal des Debats of Paris, in an article on the Newfoundland question, expressed the opinion that the conference recently concluded. It regards the presence of Queen Victoria and Lord Salisbury in France as an excellent symptom of the situation.

THE BALTIC CHIEF ASSASSINATION. ROSTA, March 28.—Premier Stambouloff and M. Balicheff, Minister of Finance, were out on the streets of Rosta yesterday. They were shot at by a man who fired three shots at them. The man was killed by a soldier. The man who shot at them was killed by a soldier.

PARIS, March 28.—The first of May is going to be a lively day in Paris, whatever it may be in the rest of Europe. Revolutionists are thought to be plotting to enter the city on the first of May. The French government is taking precautions to prevent this.

Weather forecast for twenty-four

The Independent movement is still growing.

The election of either party ticket will suit the boodle bosses.

The honest political opinion of St. Louis approves of a clean ticket.

The hoodlum plan of campaign is anything but the Independent.

An endorsement of the prevalent methods of city politics is out of the question.

There is not even a suspicion of boodle behind the Independent Municipal movement.

The worst "knifing" in the April election will be the bosses and boodlers, who are howling now about loyalty to parties to catch honest voters.

Municipal misgovernment is the constant subject of complaint between elections, but the only time to remedy it is on election day.

The spectacle of two candidates for elective office dancing attendance at a convention of fifteen daymen and begging for their endorsement shows what some men are willing to do for the sake of politics.
A little show of manhood would not hurt even a machine candidate.

OBJECTION is made to the citizens who got up the Independent ticket, that they claim to be better than other people. We are quite sure that no such objection will ever be urged against the Lehmanns and Brady and Grassmucks and other representatives of machine politics.

THE authorities of North Sligo have strengthened the constabulary and secured a detachment of cavalry in preparation for the contest of the Farnellites and Mc-Carthyites for the parliamentary seat.
Under the circumstances it is believed that voters may cast their ballots without actually forfeiting their lives.

THE Chilean Congress having failed to make any appropriations for the current year. This is going beyond our own President, who under the reciprocity section of the McKinley bill can merely regulate the revenue by abolishing or establishing certain customs duties.

THE Duc d'Orleans is again in Paris, despite his recent experience there in a prison cell. His mission this time, however, is love, not war. The young young Bourbon is in the disguise of a humble valet in the train of a popular opera singer and hence there is no occasion for the Republic to tremble in its boots. A pre-tender to a throne who is content to stand at the stage door and carry the wraps and hand-kerchiefs of the prima donnas is dangerous only to himself.

THERE is much in Mr. CLEVELAND's suggestion in his letter to the Indiana Tariff Reform League that the hardship of the money situation might be relieved to a large extent by leaving in the pockets of the people the money which is drawn into the National Treasury through unnecessary and burdensome tariff taxation. This would not meet in full the demand of the people for the expansion of the circulating medium, but it would help matters while righting a great wrong.

HIT FOR VOTERS.

In an interview in the POST-DISPATCH on the subject of his appointments, the Mayor talked with apparent freedom concerning his plans and made a great show of frankness by naming the men he has selected for three of the offices within his gift.

The Mayor is not called upon to pledge himself to any slate and his naming of three of his contemplated appointees who happen to be unobjectionable can only be regarded as a clever trick to allay popular fears, blind the respectable voters and cover other intentions concerning whom he is silent. He named the men whom he expects to appoint to the offices of City Counselor, Street Commissioner and Harbor Commissioner, but he is silent with regard to that important office with magnificent opportunities for boodling, the Commissioner of Supplies; he says nothing about his intention with reference to the Health Commissioner, the Park Commissioner, the water rates office and the forty or more other offices controlling in the aggregate an enormous amount of patronage and regulating the expenditures of immense sums. He did not intimate what plum his cousin and factotum "Jim" BRENNAN would receive.

If the Mayor proposes to stand on an appointment platform he should avoid pretenses and name his entire slate. Intelligent citizens who have the interest of the city at heart and who recognize the importance of the stake involved in the April election will hardly be caught by such flimsy bait.

BUYING FREER TRADE.

The strange news comes from Hawaii that a treaty proposed by Mr. BLAINE tendering the Sandwich Islanders absolute free trade with the United States is not very acceptable to the Queen's Cabinet, whose demand is that we shall guarantee the same bounty of 2 cents to Sandwich Island sugar that we pay our own producers. Unless this bounty is paid, Hawaii, it is said, will seek an equivalent for it in reciprocity treaty with Canada, Australia or some other country willing to grant her sugar free to a protected market.

An administration elected on the theory that a vote for free trade in Congress must be denounced as treason to the country, is now hard at work extending the area of free trade by treaty. An administration which held that the tariff was not a tax on our people is now boasting that it has relieved them of a tax of $55,000,000 by making sugar free. And Mr. BLAINE, who held that free admission to our markets is a concession with which we can purchase equally valuable concessions from foreign powers, as we had done in the reciprocity treaty with Hawaii, is now told by the latter that she will abrogate her former concessions unless we tax our people to pay her sugar planters a bounty of 2 cents a pound.

If there is wisdom in obstructing or restricting trade with nations that buy nearly everything we sell and sell us nearly everything we buy, what can we gain by the commercial annexation of petty nationalities that have comparatively nothing to trade on? If reciprocity with the remote Sandwich Islands is desirable, why not with Cuba, British America and Mexico? If free trade is to be the means of annexing little garden patches far away from our coast, it would certainly be worth trying on vaster and far richer domains nearer home.

The reported removal of WASHINGTON's portrait from the place of honor over the Speaker's chair in the Arkansas State-house to make room for a portrait of JEFFERSON DAVIS will be noticed with regret and disapprobation by nearly the entire Southern press. WASHINGTON is still first in the hearts of all his countrymen. On that point there is no sectional or party division. No other American, living or dead, can take his place there, and any legislative act which can be interpreted as an attempt to put either ABRAHAM LINCOLN or JEFFERSON DAVIS in WASHINGTON's place, is sure to give offense to the people of every section.
Doubtless the Arkansas Legislature did not dream of honoring DAVIS above WASH-INGTON, and will be sorry it has done anything susceptible of such an interpretation.

The question of property rights has assumed sharp practical issue in Lewis Island on the West coast of Scotland. The rich proprietor of the island attempted to drive the crofters from their homes and little holdings in order to turn the land into a deer preserve. The poor crofters have barricaded their homes and have declared their intention to fight for them and for the privilege of making their bread from the soil. Several instances similar to this which have occurred in Great Britain point to the probability that it will be the first nation which will be called upon to solve the land problem.

The Story as It Stands.

A story of municipal corruption comes from St. Louis that fairly eclipses the record of the New York "boodlers" Aldermen of 1884. This tale emanates from the room of the Grand jury, where the facts have been under investigation, and, if it is true, the St. Louis Aldermen have bettered the instruction of their metropolitan prototypes with truly Western boldness. It seems, according to this story, that the seven street railroad companies of the city desired to change their motive power from horse to cable or electricity, which required the consent of the Municipal Assemby so-called in St. Louis. Its members demanded $30,000 from each company as the price of the privilege asked for, or $210,000 in all, and what is more, they got it, if the tale is true. Such directors in the companies had had consciences and said to have been indebted to sell out their stock and give way to others who had no scruple against carrying out the corrupt bargain. It is certainly to be hoped that this story is not true, but there is evidently ground for a pretty thorough inquiry into the alleged facts.

MEN OF MARE.

GUY DE MAUPASSANT is translating Swin-burne's poems into French.
PETER THE GREAT's house in Zandam, Holland, is owned by the Czar, who is having it overhauled and repaired.

EDITOR WATSON says he was a famous piano player once, and as a boy he used to play at concerts with Adelina Patti.

CHARLES TERRE of Barre, Vt., is 85 years of age, has twenty-nine living children and works for a living in a stone quarry.

By the way, in these anniversary days does any one happen to recall the name of the Judge who sentenced Robert Emmet?

CHARLES BROADWAY ROUSE of New York is one of the few politicians in the country who pay their employees at the end of each day.

FRANK LAWSON, an actor, aged 60 years, and at one time the husband of the notorious Josie Mansfield, died Sunday at the Forrest Home near Philadelphia.

COUNT HERBERT BISMARCK has had a famous present. The ancestral estate, where the iron Chancellor was born, Schonhausen, in the Prussian province of Saxony, has been given him by his father.

THE Emperor of Germany will pitch his tent in Buckingham Palace when he visits England this summer, and if he takes his dogs and ferrets along with him he may have a glorious rat hunt.

ELIJAH KILGORE, the man who wrote "Spartacus to the Gladiators" and "Regulus to the Carthaginians," once so familiar to the school boys of the nation, is dead. He was a clergyman, a student of law, and even now preaches occasionally.

WOMEN OF THE WORLD.

Mrs. FRANK LESLIE is about to make a will leaving $500,000 for the purpose of founding a clubhouse for women.

ANN KELZA, the nineteenth wife of Brigham Young, is now the wife of Representative Denning of Manitoba, Mich.

Mrs. LELAND STANFORD is so rich that she does not hesitate to wear dresses that are out of fashion by several years.

MISS LINDA MANSFIELD, one of New York's most popular sopranos, faints at a recent Madison Square concert, when she was on an unusually high note.

A NOTWORTHY incident in theatricals is the debut on the stage of Miss Mattie Ford, daughter of the veteran manager, John T.
Ford of Baltimore.

Mrs. HENRI GREVILLE, who has seen more of the world than most French women, says the American woman makes too many acquaintances and too few friends.

THERE are a great many sad and desolate women in Washington. They run boarding houses and their Congressional patrons forgot to settle up before going home.

Mrs. ADAM, the noted woman editor and author of Paris, is graceful and fascinating.
She has a large fortune and an immense capacity for work. She dresses simply and in the best of taste.

EX-EMPEROR CARLOTTA of Mexico is so far recovered from her mental troubles that she is able to take interest in the management of her home near Laeken and the control of the beautiful estate in which it is placed.

EX-EMPEROR FREDERICK is short, plain and stout. The physiognomy gives the impression of sturdy strength of mind and high thought. Nevertheless she has a retreating chin and a poorly formed mouth. The nose is commonplace and turned up.

WILL GET HIS DESERTS.

A Wife-Beater Sent to the Work-House to Break Rock.

Charles Volkman is one of those contemptible creatures who, for want of a stronger term, must be classified as wife-beater. He has been living with his family at 277 Tennessee avenue and for the past six weeks has depended on his wife and grown sons for support. Recently the woman determined to strike out for herself and made arrangements to sell the furniture and household effects, with the idea of commencing the work of removing the furniture from the house and because his wife entered an objection to this action, he beat her brutally in the presence of his children. One of the children ran for assistance to the Fifth District, and the latter soon landed the husband before the bar.

This morning Volkman was taken to the house of the First District on the charge of disturbance of the peace. Mrs. Volkman and her son appeared against him and told their story. Judge Gady fined Volkman $50, and said he could not pay the fine, his address for the next three months will be care of Supt. Carroll, City Work-house.

ANOTHER BIG CONTRACT.

Bids Requested for the New City Hall Iron Work.

The Board of Public Improvements has decided to let bids for the iron work on the new City Hall for the basement, first, second and third stories. The board had originally intended to let the iron contract throughout, but it was afterwards decided to let the fourth and fifth stories and the roof of the building.
The iron work is extensive and some lively bidding is anticipated. The estimated cost for the first three stories is placed at $100,000.
The bids will be opened April 14 and a deposit of $5,000 will have to accompany each proposition.

The Electric Light Matter.
Much interest is centered in the controversial Lighting Co. growing out of the failure of the company to meet its obligations as they are ordered. The Board of Public Improvements insists on its right to compel the company to supply the lights that are ordered and to pay for them.

City Counselor Bell has not yet taken the matter up for the reason that the papers have not been presented to him.
He expects, however, to give the subject much attention during the coming week.

Nancy Wells was before Judge Gady in the first District Police Court to-day on the charge of disturbing the peace. On the night of the 26th inst. Nancy fought with another colored dame named Edna Morgan in the house at 111 South Tenth street. Nancy used a knife on Edna, slashing her across the arm.
The Edna woman refused to commence a prosecution in the Criminal Court and Officer Heath was compelled to charge the festive Nancy with plain disturbance. Judge Gady fined the defendant five cents.

PARTY MEN'S PLANS.

The Hoodlums in Both Parties Allied Against the Independents.

THE CONTEST NOW ONE OF THE PEOPLE AGAINST THE POLITICIANS.

Democratic Office-Holders Carrying Tickets of Republican Candidates—Rep-lican Hoodlums Working in the Interests of Certain Democrats—A Scrap From Mr. Comfort's Record.

One of the most amusing incidents of the Council campaign was the receipt of a peculiar postal card at the Independent headquarters signed "C. I. Filley." The Independents sent postal to a number of people and asked them to secure signatures on the cards and return them. One of them came back with the following upon it, written in red ink, just beneath the names of the candidates:

The above people represent nobody, and could not get a vote from anyone thinking about it. I sincerely hope they will all be hanged.

The Old Demander is the only C. I. Filley known in St. Louis, and the result is the presumption that the card came from him.

The ire of party men naturally turns against an independent movement, and the Independents are expected to be the recipients of party organs ignoring party lines, directing all their fire against the Independents and then complimenting each other on the gallant fight they are making.

It is a curious thing that the result is the reputation of the Independent movement as an antagonistic Democratic organ on its work, and they are such men as Contractor Jim McCarthy, who are not Democrats.
